

Left Luggage Ticket Terms and Conditions

The following are conditions upon which Luggage is accepted for deposit by SATS-Creuers Cruise Services Pte. Ltd. ("Company") at the Marina Bay Cruise Centre Singapore ("Premises").

1. The Company's employees and/or agents are not authorized to accept any Luggage (which term shall mean to include any article, suitcase, trunk, container, case and/or baggage containing the depositor's belongings and/or personal effects) which on its own or in aggregate exceed the value of SGD500. The Company, its employees and agents accept no responsibility for the safe custody of such articles.
2. The depositor warrants to the Company that Luggage deposited with the Company do not either separately or in aggregate exceed the value of SGD500, that such articles are not dangerous and that any such perishable articles will not be deposited with the Company for more than 24 hours.
3. All Luggage deposited with the Company may be subject to a security screening. The depositor may be requested to present and/or open his Luggage for physical inspection. In the event that the depositor refuses to do so, the Company has the right to reject such Luggage for deposit, and notify security personnel at the Premises.
4. All Luggage deposited are accepted at the sole risk of the depositor, and at the discretion of the Company. The Company, its employees and agents will not be liable for the any loss of, misdelivery or damage to any Luggage deposited with the Company, howsoever caused, whether by negligence or otherwise, or for any consequential loss resulting from such loss, misdelivery or damage.
5. The Company, its employees and agents will not be liable for any consequential loss resulting from the loss of, misdelivery of, or damage to Luggage deposited with the Company.
6. The Company is authorized to keep any Luggage so deposited in a location it deems fit.
7. The Company is authorized to deliver up deposited Luggage to any person who produces the receipt issued in exchange for them, whether or not that receipt was issued to that person. The Company is only authorized to deliver up Luggage deposited to a person not able to produce the appropriate receipt if he satisfies the Company that he is the depositor or has the depositor's authority and this will include proof of identity and a signed letter of authorization.
8. Perishable articles may be deposited for up to 24 hours and will be disposed of by the Company thereafter, if not collected.
9. Charges for deposit of Luggage are payable in accordance with the schedule of charges upon deposit of Luggage with the Company and are non-refundable.
10. Charge for excess period – An excess charge for each Luggage will be payable in respect of the period between date of deposit and date of removal. An excess charge of SGD30 per Luggage will be raised per day if items are not collected after 24 hours.
11. If any Luggage is not removed after one week, the Company will treat the Luggage as lost property and shall dispose of such Luggage in any manner the Company, in its absolute discretion, deems fit.
12. Luggage will only be accepted for deposit upon payment of the appropriate fee and will only be released if any excess fee that may be due has been paid.

Schedule of Rates

Price per item per 24 hour or part thereof (For first 2 items)	Price per item per 24 hour or part thereof (For 3rd and each subsequent item)
S$ 9.00	S$ 7.50

We do not accept freight as left luggage.

Above rates are inclusive of 7% GST charges.

Rates quoted are subjected to change.

All payment shall be made in Singapore dollars. In the event that payment is made in currency other than Singapore dollars, the rate of conversion to be applied in determining the amount to be paid by the depositor shall be such daily prevailing rate of exchange as determined by the Company.